STRENGTHS

- 🔗 Accessible Teaching
Used audits, scenarios, and participation plans in class, helping students see barriers through a ministry lens.
- 📖 Faith Integration
Connected biblical reflection with practical ministry decisions, and students found discussions easier to carry into church settings.
- 👥 Adult Learner Support
Adjusted pacing, materials, and discussion formats for adult learners; coordinator feedback confirmed clearer course engagement.
- 🤝 Collegial Collaboration
Worked across faculty and ministry teams on sequencing and student support, creating steadier expectations for learners.
- 🗣️ Reflective Instruction
Used observation feedback and student work patterns to revise teaching choices, turning small insights into better class flow.

SUMMARY

Christian ministry educator with eight years of progressive experience across congregational disability ministry, adult faith formation, and undergraduate instruction. Holds a Ph.D. in Practical Theology and connects biblical interpretation, Jesus and his Kingdom, spiritual formation, and practical ministry competencies with real ministry contexts. Teaches traditional undergraduates and adult degree completion learners through accessible, student centered instruction, case discussions, applied assignments, and reflective practice. Develops disability inclusive ministry content, evaluates student learning, reviews teaching effectiveness with program leaders, and adjusts instruction through observation feedback. Collaborates collegially with faculty, staff, students, ministry leaders, families, and volunteers. Active local church involvement supports Christ centered teaching, inclusive participation, and thoughtful ministry formation across diverse college communities.

EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Instructor, Christian Ministry

Westbridge Christian College 📅 August 2023 - Present 📍 Riverside, CA

Teach undergraduate Christian ministry courses for traditional and adult degree completion learners. Connect biblical study, spiritual formation, disability ministry concepts, and practical ministry decisions through case based instruction, applied assignments, and collaborative course administration.

- Taught ministry courses through biblical cases, helping adult learners connect doctrine with practical ministry decisions.
- Built disability ministry lessons using accessibility audits, pastoral scenarios, and congregational participation plans for applied learning.
- Evaluated reflections, ministry plans, presentations, and field assignments with rubrics supporting theological reasoning and ethical care.
- Reviewed class progress with program leadership, then adjusted pacing and discussion methods after observation feedback.
- Coordinated course sequencing and student support with faculty colleagues, creating consistent expectations across ministry classes.
- Maintained digital course records, grading materials, and prompt student communication through standard computer systems.

Disability Ministry Coordinator

Harbor Community Church 📅 June 2020 - July 2023 📍 Corona, CA

Directed church based disability ministry for children, adults, and families. Guided volunteer practice, individualized participation planning, Bible studies, spiritual formation, accessible events, and leadership reporting within a congregational setting committed to meaningful participation.

- Directed disability ministry services for children, adults, and families, aligning participation with pastoral mission.
- Created volunteer training on sensory access, caregiver partnership, and person centered communication for consistent ministry practice.
- Developed participation plans with families and leaders, opening worship and formation activities for varied support needs.
- Adapted Bible studies and spiritual formation gatherings while preserving theological depth, reflection, and meaningful discussion.
- Advised staff on accessible events, classroom layouts, communication practices, and volunteer coverage for smoother delivery.
- Presented family feedback and ministry outcomes to church leadership, shaping priorities for future program planning.
