- Drafted pleadings, motions, research memoranda, and hearing submissions for fact intensive public law disputes.
- Researched Colorado statutes, regulations, constitutional provisions, and federal authorities for jurisdiction and due process questions.
- Organized administrative records and factual chronologies supporting case assessment, negotiation, and hearing preparation.
- Interviewed clients and witnesses, translating detailed accounts into focused factual support for legal strategy.
- Presented arguments in administrative proceedings while applying evidentiary and procedural requirements to active matters.
- Maintained deadline systems across concurrent cases, keeping clients and legal teams aligned through required processes.

PROJECTS

TABOR and Public Finance Research Initiative 📅 2026

A difficult question often begins with a single line in a statute. Researched TABOR, constitutional public finance principles, and state federal law interaction, then shaped findings into practical analysis for collaborative case review and client counseling.

Revenue Dispute Record Analysis 📅 2024

Financial records rarely explain themselves. Examined corporate structures, transaction documents, agency records, and statutory frameworks to support legal theories in complex regulatory and revenue disputes.
