SUMMARY

Licensed secondary English Language Arts educator with seven years of classroom experience supporting Grade 10 and Grade 11 learners through literature, composition, rhetoric, research, and academic communication. Holds a Bachelor of Education in English Education, a valid Hawaii teaching license aligned with secondary English instruction, and National Board Certification in English Language Arts. Plans standards aligned units, teaches close reading, assesses student writing, and builds discussion routines that strengthen evidence based reasoning. Classroom practice includes formative assessment, differentiated support, clear feedback cycles, multilingual learner support, family communication, and grade level curriculum planning. Colleagues rely on practical mentoring around lesson design, assessment calibration, and instructional materials. This background supports rigorous, welcoming classrooms where students develop confidence as readers, writers, researchers, and thoughtful communicators.

EXPERIENCE

- Built writing units moving from source evaluation and outlining through revision and publication.
- Selected complementary texts that strengthened thematic context, close reading, and evidence based interpretation.
- Created differentiated reading supports, writing models, and conferences for multilingual learners.
- Used assessment evidence to plan reteaching, extension, and individualized feedback for students.
- Contributed to curriculum mapping and family conferences connecting work evidence with learning goals.

English Language Arts Teacher, Literacy Instruction

Harbor Ridge High School 📅 August 2019 - June 2020 📍 Kaneohe, HI

STRENGTHS

- 📖 Evidence Based Teaching
Students learned to connect claims with relevant passages, and discussion quality improved through repeated evidence routines.
- ❤️ Writing Development
A staged writing unit gave students room to draft, receive feedback, revise, and publish with greater confidence.
- 👥 Differentiated Support
Targeted models and conferences helped multilingual learners enter demanding texts, something families frequently valued.
- 🧠 Collaborative Leadership
Shared rubrics and calibration conversations brought colleagues closer around consistent expectations for student writing.
- 💬 Family Communication
Clear updates connected assignments, progress, and next steps, helping families participate in student learning.
