MY CAREER

- Guest Services Event Practicum, University Events at University Project (2 Months)
- Campus Visitor Services Simulation, Visitor Support at Student Lab (4 Months)
- Community Event Service Study, Nonprofit Volunteer Research at Academic Research (3 Months)

Completed a service lab focused on university visitor and event scenarios across phone, email, and in person channels. Rotated through greeting, information, and queue support stations while learning consistent access procedures, discretion, teamwork, and concise responses.

- Completed service lab assignments covering phone, email, and in person university guest communication.
- Answered simulated questions about event times, building access, seating areas, and campus services using approved references.
- Greeted high profile guest personas with courtesy, discretion, and consistent access procedures during practice scenarios.
- Rotated through greeter, information, and queue support stations to study organized visitor flow.
- Reviewed service interactions against a rubric, then revised responses for clearer tone and accurate information.
- Created an event service guide covering escalation paths, common questions, teamwork, and composure.

Community Event Service Study, Nonprofit Volunteer Research

Academic Research 📅 September 2025 - December 2025 📍 Lansing, MI

Conducted a supervised course study of nonprofit and campus event service practices, examining welcoming, communication, queue organization, accessibility awareness, and volunteer coordination. Presented practical findings for temporary event staff and tested recommendations through peer role play.

- Examined guest service practices at nonprofit and campus events through supervised course research.
- Built an observation checklist covering greeting quality, information accuracy, queue organization, accessibility, and teamwork.
- Compared face to face, phone, and email examples to assess clarity across service channels.
- Presented briefing material and escalation recommendations for temporary event staff during a class presentation.
- Tested service recommendations through peer role play and incorporated evaluator feedback into final reporting.
- Maintained organized research notes and source documentation throughout supervised event service study.

PROJECTS

Campus Event Access Practice 📅 2026

Built a supervised event access practice plan using venue maps, access lists, queue guidance, and escalation contacts. The work strengthened readiness for courteous guest support during busy university events.

Nonprofit Welcome Desk Study 📅 2025

Studied welcome desk service across nonprofit events, then translated observations into clear briefing notes for volunteers. Findings focused on accurate information, inclusive greetings, and smooth team coordination.
