STRENGTHS

- Capacity Planning
During grant deadlines, assignment queues were reshaped around complexity and capacity, keeping urgent work visible and manageable.
- Practical Training
Buy2Pay and Concur office hours turned system changes into usable habits, and colleagues began seeking guidance early.
- Policy Judgment
Complex funding questions received clear answers grounded in sponsor terms, tax rules, controls, and institutional policy.
- Collaborative Service
Faculty, administrators, and finance peers found a dependable partner for sensitive transactions and difficult funding decisions.
- Process Clarity
Standard procedures, escalation paths, and job aids gave decentralized teams a simpler route through financial work.

SUMMARY

Financial operations leader with 10 years of progressive higher education experience supporting academic departments, research centers, and decentralized finance teams. Leads finance professionals across accounting, budgets, accounts payable and receivable, payroll coordination, procurement, endowment activity, sponsored research, and unrestricted funding. Builds practical workflows that help staff manage complex transactions with consistent documentation, sound judgment, and strong service. Uses advanced Excel, Buy2Pay, Concur, financial systems, and data query tools to connect transaction details with broader budget and compliance needs. Partners with faculty, administrators, center directors, investigators, and finance colleagues on funding decisions, audit preparation, policy interpretation, and system transitions. Supervises hiring, onboarding, coaching, workload planning, and performance development. Brings a steady, collaborative approach to financial stewardship and operational improvement in higher education.

EXPERIENCE

Associate Director, Financial Operations

- Briarwood University March 2023 - Present Providence, RI
- Leads a 12 person finance team serving academic departments and research centers. Owns service delivery across procurement, payables, sponsored funding, endowments, budgets, system adoption, policy interpretation, and staff development.
- Rebalanced finance queues by complexity and capacity, keeping grant deadlines and fiscal close work moving.
 - Built standard procedures and escalation paths, giving administrators clearer answers on funding, tax, and policy issues.
 - Guided Buy2Pay and Concur adoption through role based training, office hours, and practical reference guides.
 - Reviewed sensitive transactions with faculty and administrators, applying sponsor terms, controls, and accounting principles.
 - Managed hiring, onboarding, coaching, performance planning, and equitable workload distribution for 12 finance professionals.

Senior Finance Manager

- Commonwealth Institute for Policy Studies January 2020 - February 2023 Boston, MA
- Managed finance operations for research centers with responsibility for sponsored and unrestricted funding, budgets, procurement, payables, receivables, endowments, staff supervision, reporting, and audit ready documentation.
- Connected ledger, award, and procurement data through advanced Excel reconciliations and query based reviews.
 - Introduced case reviews for complex coding and sponsor restrictions, helping six finance staff resolve issues consistently.
 - Redesigned central finance handoffs, giving center administrators clearer approval, correction, and escalation routes.
 - Partnered with investigators on funding decisions, preserving audit ready documentation without slowing research support.
 - Created Concur and procurement training materials, helping nonfinance users complete transactions with greater confidence.

MY CAREER

- Associate Director, Financial Operations at Briarwood University (3.6 Years)
- Senior Finance Manager at Commonwealth Institute for Policy Studies (3.1 Years)
- Finance Operations Supervisor at Easton College (2.5 Years)
- Senior Financial Analyst at Granite Bay University (1.6 Years)

Supervised four coordinators supporting purchasing, invoices, reimbursements, payroll adjustments, and budget administration. Coordinated accounting, tax, policy, and service questions while improving transaction review and staff guidance.

- Allocated purchasing and payment work by deadline and complexity, protecting time sensitive departmental commitments.
- Reviewed entries and reconciliations for coding, approvals, documentation, and internal control compliance before close.
- Built Excel reconciliation and exception templates, giving department administrators a clearer view of unresolved items.
- Converted purchasing and travel policy changes into job aids, helping coordinators adopt new workflows.
- Coordinated vendor, payment, and reporting questions with accounting and tax colleagues, reducing avoidable rework.

Senior Financial Analyst

Granite Bay University 📅 October 2015 - May 2017 📍 Manchester, NH

Supported academic and research programs through budget monitoring, ledger review, procurement analysis, sponsored fund reconciliation, financial reporting, and stakeholder guidance. Combined system extracts and query tools to surface exceptions before close.

- Combined financial system extracts and data queries, surfacing exceptions before monthly and fiscal close.
- Reconciled sponsored and unrestricted accounts, preserving audit trails for grant and accounting review.
- Prepared commitment and spending analyses, helping program leaders assess balances across operating and research accounts.
- Reviewed procurement and reimbursement transactions against institutional policy, approvals, and documentation standards.
- Documented reconciliation procedures and trained analysts on systems, controls, and stakeholder communication.

PROJECTS

Research Finance Service Model 📅 2024

Coordinated finance colleagues and research administrators around clearer service paths for sponsored funding, complex transactions, and escalations. Shared practical guidance that made policy conversations easier for busy academic teams.

Financial Systems Training Refresh 📅 2023

Partnered with finance staff and nonfinance users to refresh Buy2Pay and Concur learning resources. Office hours and reference guides gave colleagues a calmer way to adopt changed workflows.
