STRENGTHS

- 📊 Fiscal stewardship
Reserve reviews and expenditure analysis gave presidents and trustees a clearer view of financial choices, risks, and timing.
- ♥ Executive reporting
Complex forecasts became concise board materials. One clear page often opened a better conversation about institutional priorities.
- 🔒 Internal controls
Audit documentation and purchasing reviews created steadier workflows, and colleagues sought practical guidance on sensitive issues.
- 👥 Cross portfolio leadership
Finance, facilities, technology, and auxiliary teams worked from shared plans. Progress came from connecting details others held apart.
- 📌 Strategic planning
Capital, equipment, enrollment, and program data shaped realistic choices. Leaders gained confidence when assumptions stayed visible.
